

November 2013

Curtis | Castillo PC Newsletter

In This Issue

- News and Events

-Community Outreach

-Speaking Engagements

Speaking Engagements

Mark A. Castillo lectured in Arlington at the 23rd Annual DFW Area Chapter 13 Consumer Bankruptcy Conference on Monday, October 21, 2013. Mr. Castillo lectured on Bankruptcy Litigation: Working Through Adversary Proceedings from Beginning to End.

Continued News

Curtis|Castillo is now an active fee office under the umbrella of Federal Title, Inc. and can perform required legal work as well as handle closings in-house.

Artwork:
Ladder of Success by Tolla Cast Bronze

News and Events

Community Outreach

Stephanie Curtis was Principal For A Day on October 15, 2013, at George Bannerman Dealey Montessori. Principal For A Day is a project of the DISD that brings community leaders into schools across the district. The program is designed to increase awareness and understanding among individuals in the private sector of the strengths and challenges of schools in the DISD, demonstrate the private sector's commitment to ensuring a quality public education for all students, and form ongoing partnerships between individuals and businesses and the Dallas ISD.

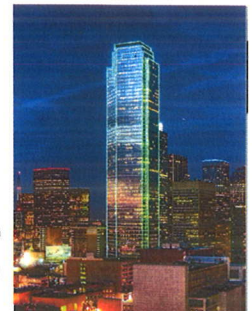

Stephanie Curtis served on the Gala Host Committee for the 2013 Dallas Symphony Orchestra AT&T Gala. For more information on this event, please click on the link. Dallas Symphony Orchestra AT&T Gala

On October 21, 2013, Stephanie Curtis sponsored a private reception honoring Afshan Khan, the CEO of Women for Women International. This organization is dedicated to working with socially excluded women in eight countries where war and conflict have devastated lives and communities. For more information on Women for Women International, please click on the link. Women For Women International

Curtis|Castillo's attorneys attended the relighting ceremony for the Bank of America Plaza on November 14, 2013. After months of work replacing the old and outdated green argon gas lights with new LED ones, the Bank of America Plaza was relit with much fanfare and a colorful light show. This event signaled the return of an icon to the Dallas skyline, and the firm was honored to have been able to take part in this historic event.

Curtis | Castillo PC ("CCPC") Newsletter is published solely for the interests of its readers. The views expressed in this publication are not necessarily the views of CCPC attorneys. For specific information on recent developments or particular factual situations, the opinion of legal counsel should be sought. This publication may be considered Attorney Advertising. IRS Circular 230 Disclosure: As required by U.S. Treasury Regulations governing tax practice, you are hereby advised that any written tax advice contained herein was not written or intended to be used (and cannot be used) by any taxpayer for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. If you no longer wish to receive this publication, please send an e-mail to churst@curtislaw.net with UNSUBSCRIBE in the subject line and you will be removed from the distribution list.

Curtis | Castillo PC

Bank of America Plaza | 901 Main Street | Suite 6515 | Dallas, TX 75202
T: 214.752.2222 F: 214.752.0709 Web: www.curtislaw.net