December 2017

Hurricane Assistance:

We understand those residing or doing business in the affected areas will face a number of challenges in the days, weeks and months ahead. While the recovery process is still underway, Curtis | Castillo is prepared to assist individuals and businesses affected by Hurricane Harvey and Hurricane Irma with the legal and business questions that typically arise in the aftermath of natural disasters. This group is comprised of highly-qualified attorneys with experience in a number of legal areas to help you sort through this complicated process. We recognize that maintaining business continuity is your priority, and we at Curtis | Castillo are here to help you. As you evaluate the next steps within your organization, our team is by your side and can provide counsel and assistance in critical areas, including: contract claims, creditors' rights, financial restructuring and bankruptcy, insurance policy interpretation, claims analysis and recovery, IRS special tax relief and assistance, loan assistance and regulatory guidance from state, local and federal agencies.

Curtis | Castillo's Hurricane Recovery Group will be here to help your individual and business needs.
